In the castle
there hid loneliness
it was singing
The place looks the same.
no matter where you go
The song blinds you

twistedmist.blogspot.com

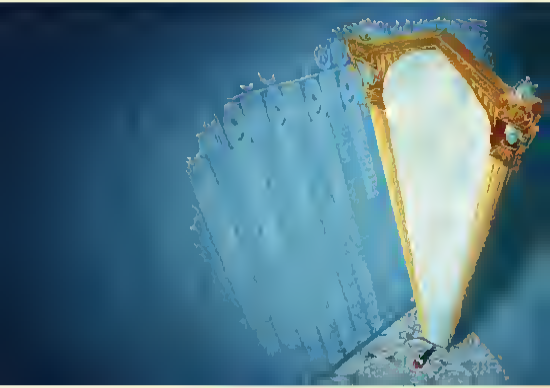
huh, loneliness head.

twistedmist.blogspot.com

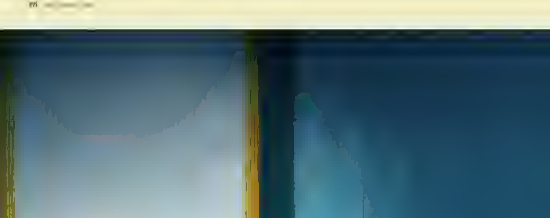
... why is there this light?

twistedmist.blogspot.com



Because there is ..... a big golden framed mirror.

twistedmist.blogspot.com



In the mirror, there isn't all, only you.

"Who are you?"
"I'm your reflection."

twistedmist.blogspot.com

"Reflection? Why am I able to see you?"

twistedmist.blogspot.com

CR: Oh so that blue guy was his reflection.

" Because n the mirror there is a dragon
who can help us
can see sprites
can see fairies
can see everywhere of the castle can see the past and future and it can see me

"In the world
everyone has it's own reflection."

'The rose garden that you walked past I hid at your side swaying slowly'

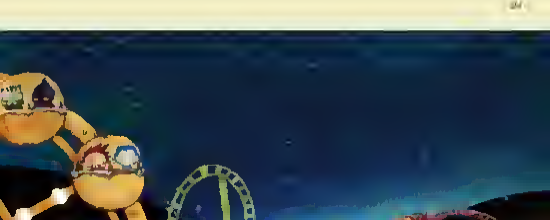
twistedmist.blogspot.com

"When you went to the dream world, I hid in the crowds."

twistedmist.blogspot.com

When you are covered by the golden wheats I was behind standing still letting the golden colour covered me like the waves.

twistedmist.blogspot.com



'When you were at the carnival I was holding onto your wooden horse quietly sitting on the ferris wheel

"Just like this we standing at your side.
laugh

"But you all are always busy thinking that you can see the future, but you can't see us at all

Hiding yourself in the crowds, day after day,
year after year.

twistedmist.blogspot.com

'Not knowing that the more crowded area, the more lonely you feel a loneliness that you never wished for Never'

twistedmist Blogspot com

"Then how can I find you?"

" You only need to shut your eyes gently

twistedmist.blogspot.com

Do you feel that you can concentrate on listening to the flowers that sway? concentrate on what your lover is expressing? concentrate on looking at this world?
concentrate of the new future?

swirlydust.blogspot.com

"If you can concentrate on all this, even without this mirror, you can still see me!"

twistedmist.blogspot.com

"And all this new adventures."
